REPORT

COMPILATION BY
SYWYRD MOON

Thank you so much for joining me here.

My name is Sywyrd Moon. I'm a lifelong witch and for the last 5 years I've been offering my spell casting services to the public.

Early on in my offerings I started to receive reports from people who had been scammed by other so-called spellcasters.

People flooded in with stories of not only having their money taken but their lives deeply affected.

These people told me horrifying stories of being harassed, threatened, and abused by scammers. They spoke of being threatened with curses, of being blackmailed with their own information. Some spent the last of their money and then were instructed to sell their most prized possessions to keep funding the scammers. Death threats, magical attacks, being outed to the ones that matter the most. It seemed there was no line that the scammers weren't willing to cross to threaten someone out of a few more dollars.

As these stories continued to grow, I realized that I had to do something to help. In the beginning, I used YouTube to make a few videos intending that someone out there would see them and learn from what I had learned. Hopefully, a few people will be able to get away from these scammers.

Over the years, as my business has grown, more and more people have come to me with these stories. I created a forum on my website so that people could begin to report these spellcasters as I knew I alone could only do so much.

This report is a summation of all of those reports that I have received to date. What you are about to read are 100% genuine reports that have been submitted to me. It is my hope and deepest intention that these reports help other people to connect and to realize if they have also been scammed.

It is important to me to share this information for a couple of reasons. Firstly, I hope that people can find out and know if they've been scammed. Secondly, it's important to me to bring the truth to light about these people. Some are very well-known names with large followings and high ranking websites. Some have millions of dollars at their disposal to create counter campaigns to attack harassing the gate anyone who speaks against them.

Finally, I just want to help people. If you are a person who thinks that you're being scammed, I want you to know that you're not alone and I'm here to help. As I mentioned, I have created a few videos on scammers that you can find on my YouTube page. I also offer services to help you determine whether or not you've been scammed on my website. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have questions or if you are in need of help.

Blessings to You,
Sywyrd Moon

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): I was contacted on instagram offering a long list of spells he can do and it was advertised as a free reading and asked for pictures and info of me and my ex then he asked for 150. Which I did not have and haven't given.

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: The first interaction was not bad , I did think it was suspicious him asking for my what's app but to be honest I did not think it was anything big stupid me. He seemed understanding and came across nice and asked if I wanted this spell to happen of wanting my ex back I would need these list of things and again I explained I have no money and won't be paid until the end of the month which will be the end of this month. After a week he checked in on me again and by that time I no longer wanted to proceed with this so called spell to be honest at the time of me interacting with this person I thought was Just in a state of my ex ghosting me etc, anyways he seemed to understand and then left me alone until this week when again I refused the spell as I no longer felt it was needed and I will let this situation go then he started to call me once but then voice biting me saying that I will die and my family and ex partner will die as I have to pay for a sacrifice and he named a spirit I presume it was and said he will be very mad at you and that he had worked very hard for 2 days and why did I send him my details and picture and then I said that he is threatening me and just wanted my money he then proceed to swear at me and say I don't want your fucking money but you will die or go mad. Of course I'm scared shitless and explained I do not get paid until the 31st of jan and I want him to continue with the spell and his attitude then changed and said very good , he wanted me to pay via PayPal and I kept asking him for his details he ignored me and said I was send them over wen you have the money and for me to keep him updated. Even though I know this is a scam the fear in me wants to pay him then block all contact which is silly I know but the threat of death sets all types of fears off.

This is textbook for scammers. Nice until no money comes... then the threats begin. Remember, these aren't witches. They're not Spirit doctors. They're THEIVES. They can't curse you!

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: I, asked about a text me spell, but she said I needed to do a love spell. The spell I asked about was like $35. The spell she said I needed to do was $55 to $155. She said I needed to do this because we are soulmates. I know that's not true, so I didn't buy her services.

PRO TIP: This is the perfect response. If they're trying to push you into buying more expensive stuff and not listening to what you want, don't buy. Find someone else!

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): A communication spell.

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: She sent me a PDF file saying the spell had been cast and what to expect. She didn't guarantee it would work, but said if nothing happened in about 6 weeks she would recast it for free. Nothing happened so she supposedly recast it. Still nothing. I really need to know if she is legit because I actually bought a couple more spells from her.

PRO TIP: Go to someone who will show you photo proof of your working.
If you're only receiving a text document, it's highly likely they've just pasted your name into it, and that no spellwork actually happened!

Their Website, Social Media Links?: <https://www.drkikutalovespells.com/>

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): I bought a spell that would increase the size of my penis and muscles

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: I purchased the spell, against my better judgement, on moneygram. After about 15 minutes he calls me, says that i had a curse put on me at birth and says I need all of these items (of course that I cannot get myself) and he said he could get them for me (camels, cows, goats). I sent him more money, the next day he says he needs more money, then that there is evil in my room and he needs more items to expel the evil. He claimed every time that it would be the last payment, but always something ended up coming up. When I said I couldn't pay anymore he says that canceling the spell can bring me great harm (which scared the crap out of me). I was very adamant I wanted to cancel, suspicious this was most likely a scam. A few days later he said he could finish the spell for $100 or refund the entire thing, I said I couldn't pay anything, I was very clear I wanted to cancel and get the refund. I didn't hear back for several days and I asked about the refund, he said he kept the spell active to "prevent harm" and said I had to pay him $650 in order to receive a full refund, I left it at that. All in all, I spent soo much money on this, money I don't really have but my judgement was clouded, I was scared, and he preyed on that, and I can only imagine there is someone out there that will end up giving this man everything, until they have nothing left. Luckily I stopped before I gave him everything, I'll survive, but I'm confident this would have never stopped, he would have bled me dry of everything I have. I honestly don't know who to trust anymore. I was desperate for this spell and I lost my money and sense of security. Along the way he would send videos saying "this is what happens to people who mess with me" and send a video of a woman in S.Africa with animal legs (a video which I later found on Instagram). Then he claimed to be Muslim and very religious, claimed his spells were 100% safe. I don't know what to believe anymore. I just feel for the other people hes most likely steeling from. Please help me.

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: Maybe it was just me maybe she's legit and just wasn't for me. Just looking back it's all a little weird. 1k for 3 new moon spells she suggested which ones. Didn't tell me I needed to do anything aside from burn a petition. She said on I think Wednesday then after she was like I meant Wednesday 2 weeks after I cast it. She also never said I was supposed to leave offerings and script and that I was supposed to read the petition aloud and then fold 3 times towards me then burn it. She sent some videos but not all it didn't look like anything was carved into any of them like she said she did. Maybe I'm wrong just thought I'd put this out there. She really wanted me to get a fertility spell after one candle melted and I guess she thought it looked like a uterus. I was like girl I'm 20. But after the first 3 worked she was like there's a bunch of blocks you need to do some to get rid of those. Then she was supposed to do these shadow work zoom things I gave her my email a few times and she kept saying she was sending the info but never got it. Idk just looking back a little strange at the time I was like whatever lol idk

Their Website, Social Media Links?: <https://andreika.com/>

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): I purchased a love spell and a lust spell. Specifically these two spells:

<https://andreika.com/spells/love-spells/fall-hopelessly-in-love-with-me-spell/>
<https://andreika.com/spells/love-spells/spitfire-lust-spell/>

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: I purchased these spells from Andreika on a whim a few weeks before contacting you to cast spells for me.

Nothing about the experience was personalized, and I did not receive any photos of the ritual. I received emails from her, but they were clearly prewritten emails that simply told me the dates of when the spells will be casted.

I was sold by the fact that she offered a refund if the spells did not work.

These spells were essentially the same as the spells I ordered from you. I asked her to bring the woman I love, Raquel, back into my life in a romantic way.

After my purchase, I had a gut feeling that this was probably a scam.

However, I tried to have faith in Andreika since that's what I'm suppose to do during a spell. I even casted my own love spells by myself.

Online I have found reports that Andreika does not honor the money back guarantee, as well as other reports of her spells not working. I know that no spell works %100 of the time, but I couldn't not find anyone who reported any positive results. The only positive reviews of Andreika are on her own website, and they seem fake.

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: Actually found through YouTube channel and I really thought it was genuine. Believing I paid the 14,000 in naira which is big money for me. Then he said I need to complete the spell and asked for Rs. 17,000 in Indian money. Only then I started searching hard if he was fake. I should have done this before I paid. At least I didn't pay the second amount. But he did show a picture of me and my husband and candles and stuff and had printed pictures of us and my right hand pic also I saw him keep with all others he had done for. Then when I said I can't pay the second payment he said send me ur left hand photo I will undo the spell and I sent and asked for money. He said he will pay back but I don't think he will. Can u find out if he legitimate or fake. It's a Nigeria number. Then I searched this fake spell casters list which I got and there he was in the exposed list of fake spell casters. <http://spellcastersexposed.blogspot.com/2015/10/current-scam-list.html?m=0>

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): Love/reconciliation spells

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: I found her on Reddit on spellcastersforhire. She has 0 customer service or ethics after you pay her via cash app or venmo which she insists on because her PayPal was banned since she has a lot of issues with chargebacks in her own words. I made a newbie mistake purchasing from her after seeing her ads on that subreddit since I assumed that all the casters were vetted and provided some sort of evidence that they casted their spell for clients. She doesn't even email you or update you when her casting is supposedly done.

She not only provides 0 evidence of casting, she didn't even remember who I was and then said "oh I think I cast your spell earlier today, I just can't remember because I have so many clients". I then had asked some questions about a psychic reading and she was a quick to respond saying "if you want a real reading buy from me". I decided to try a different psychic who had a 4.9 out of 5 star rating and 5000 reviews (the one who told me the predictions I asked you earlier about). At the same time I also asked her...

Her response to me being worried about the spells affect on the psychic reading was really angry and along the lines of "those psychics were probably lying or incompetent anyway, I don't trust people with good reviews" which was not even the point of my message, I just wanted to ask if it was okay to cast love spells on a target who already loves you. She was more angry I hired psychics who weren't her and completely ignored my questions and then hasn't replied to me since then a week ago.

I think it's really unfair that if a caster in Africa were to insist on only cash app/venmo bank transfer, offer 0 evidence of the spell being cast and not even be able to remember if they cast the spell for you or not that day, along with ghosting you and or not replying after you pay them they would be considered a scammer, but because she has a blog and claims to be an expert and is a white woman who lives in the US, that makes her behavior not scammy.

A spellcaster who is genuinely there to help you isn't going to respond with anger.
You should feel free to ask questions, and to expect proof of your casting.
And "I don't trust people with good reviews?"...
What does that even mean?!

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: so on insta copyallcat she was pretending to be another love spell caster and when i explained all my pain to the account or whatever so i really need her help with getting back my ex lover and i really need him back she told me that me and him are soulmates and then she told me a boy put black magic on my ex lover or whatever and then she said i had to pay her 200 to get the black magic out and for him to come back she made me buy two google play gift cards and she did take the money then after that she said that the black magic is removed or whatever thne i told her how can i make his parents love me again and she said oh no thats a problem the only reason he wont come back is because of his parents so she said give me 200 and ill make his parents love you and im like what you didnt even tell me that until i told u that and then i went to the real copyallcats tiktok and i asked her if that is her insta she said no it isnt then i texted the account asking for my money back and the account kept saying i have new spells want my new spells then i told her im gonna sue her and she blocked me and then theres this other guy dr austin hes like i wanna help u or whatever im like can u show me proof of your work he wouldnt show me anything and he wanted me to pay 300 but i didnt have 300 so i asked him if i could only give him 200 he said ok then after that i asked him for proof then he sent me an email of his client or whatever saying thanks to dr austin but who writes that to someone yk then i emailed the 'client' and she texted exactly like him she sounded just like him and then when i stopped replying to him he threatened my family and said if u dont answer me something is gonna happen to you and your family and im like what the hell? but i didnt send him money bc i knew he was fake ProTip: Don't ever send gift cards! This is a common tactic in scams. Once you buy the cards, there's no way for you to get a refund, and it's basically impossible trace!

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: I purchased the 10 question reading on the 2nd of September, but still have not received it (today's date being the 8th of December). I've been in contact with her for a refund on the basis that I have not received my reading, but she's not willing to refund this. Having bought a spell from her prior to the reading, she explained that the only way to get a refund is by her hexing the original situation. Which to me makes no sense because the spell was separate. .i just wanted a refund on something I have never received.

The only way to get a refund is by hexing the situation?

No.

This is a tactic to avoid giving a refund. Obviously nobody who goes to someone to improve a situation will elect for a hex to be put on it. :/

While results can't be guaranteed, you should always be able to get a refund if services aren't rendered!

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): Bindment spell

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: Bindment spell was supposed to work within 3 to 5 days money back guarantee. Regretfully paid through Cash app but takes PayPal though scammer said she would not get her supplies if I paid through PayPal which holds her payment for a while. I gave date of birth, names, pictures. She knew that I was talking to other casters besides her without having told her. She said that I was qualified for the spell. She said my boyfriend is stubborn and has trouble expressing himself which is true due to his disability. She said that I am right that his family is the third party interference but I have to be positive to make him not think of what his family thinks about me (I agree that my negativity made him overwhelmed and break up with me). She told me to get the spell done sooner rather than later because she would have to put more work in if I wait longer since we recently broke up this month. She told me to stay positive, to tell her of any visions or dreams, and not to talk to other casters (that could mess up her spell). She was going to talk to me about what I want in my relationship and I need help with but she said she went straight to meditation for my case because she has a lot going on with her sick daughter. She sent me a video of her spell the next day but she said she got sick too (possibly with Covid). I had a few dreams that I would let her know about but she never responded to me afterwards. I requested a refund on Cash app but they are not doing anything even though I reported her Cash app $GiftedInsights so now I have to dispute it with my bank.

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): I didn't buy anything yet but she seems suspicious

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: Gave her date of birth, names and pictures for love spell. Requested left palm picture but I couldn't give it to her because I am physically disabled in that area. Told her that I have been scammed before on Cash app so I would like to use PayPal. She keeps forgetting that. I asked her if she has any helpers, she said she has over 20 godchildren. I asked if I could video call her she got defensive and said I should find someone else to help me because I have trust issues and she is giving me a money back guarantee. I said sorry but she should understand that I have been scammed before so I want to make sure. She keeps forgetting that she told me that I could use PayPal with her. I asked for a reading first before I go ahead with a love and money spell. At first she asked why I need a reading if I know I want my boyfriend. Then when I reminded her that she agreed with me that I would pay her on PayPal she has been ignoring me when I asked her how long would it take for her to give me a reading if I paid right now. I think many scammers are accepting Cash app and Zelle because PayPal has purchase protection.

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): Reading, Bring back your lover spell and Booster Spell

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: David wanted me to wait 12 weeks for results and next week on Tuesday will be 12 weeks and my ex hasn't come back and when I ordered Booster spell last month he told me that things will move quicker but still had no results with my ex coming back. I've had a reading with one of his team first I get told that my ex isn't coming back at all and then spoken to different physic who is also David's team telling me that my ex be back around 14th December and now its 28th December so all I been giving was false information. I have emailed David last night to tell him that I want some of my money back for both spells because clearly my ex isn't coming back and won't ever come back and he emailed me back saying it clearly shows on website that I don't do refunds because my spells are expensive and also my time just wait for results please. After that I didnt bother email him back because after 12 weeks he said, he will re-cast both spells for me and I told him that I don't want them re-casted because spells didnt work first time what make you think it will work 2nd time

Their Website, Social Media Links?: Break black magic.

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): Didn't buy anything off him he's a= Cybercriminal

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: Hi XXXXX, Talal has completed his evaluation of Kimberly's situation.= He has found that she is a victim of black magic. When black magic is created, the black magician writes orders to evil= entities that are sent to affect particular aspects of a person's life. These entities have their own personalities and do= things in their own ways. They also can go to other generations and affect them as well. Watch this video to have a= better understanding. Her black magic was created for her for the following areas:

- To experience bad luck consistently.
- To suffer from either not getting married or having an unhappy marriage that will lead to divorce. This also affects future relationships she will have.
- To make people see her differently even though she hasn't changed.
- To make people leave her for no reason.
- To make her stop where she is in life and not move forward resulting in moving backward.
- To make her struggle for no reason.
- To affect her health. It's difficult to determine exactly what health issues are arising when black magic is responsible as we're all human and even people without black magic experience health issues.
- To have the inability to succeed no matter how capable she is.
- To lose in general.
- To lose financially.
- To make her become uncontrollably unhappy for no reason.
- To make her get into trouble.
- To make her be sad for no reason.
- To make her lazy.
- To make her run away.
- To make her leave.
- To ensure her career is destroyed.
- To control her thoughts.
- To get old quickly very suddenly.
- To be controlled.
- To be forgetful, resulting in making her not focus on the important things in her life.
- To make her afraid for no reason.
- To be tired constantly.
- To change her personality and behavior.
- To disrupt and distract her thoughts.
- To be forgetful.
- To make things not work for no reason.
- To block her income.
- To have pain but nothing shows when she goes to the doctor. It's difficult to determine exactly what these issues are arising when black magic is responsible as we're all human and even people without black magic experience pain for health reasons and the doctor has not figured it out yet.
- To end up by herself.
- To be alone and make her leave social life.
- To see imaginary things.
- To not be responsible. And
- To be distant from friends and family. This is also affecting her in many other indirect ways. The longer the black magic is in her life, the worse it will become resulting in more damage.

How Long Ago Was This Made? As far as how long ago this was made, please remember to ask this once he has finished his work in the nights. When it is not clear to him at the beginning he doesn't like to guess and will know exactly at that time.

- This black magic falls under the category of a hex.
- This was given to her in something she drank.
- This can affect anyone living in the same home as her. And
- This can affect future generations.

How Long Will the Work Take and How Much Does it Cost? This service will take Talal working in the middle of the night for approximately 2 months to break her black magic. Afterward, he will send you/her some talismans with instructions for you/her to follow at your/her home. If she doesn't know about this Talal can do the work in a way you can do the instructions for her. Once the instructions are complete is when it will officially break and start to leave. The black magic can be more active and affect her all the way until it has left 100%. Talal charges $1300 USD to cover the time and effort required to perform the black magic removal. He has been breaking black magic for over 30 years and has never had a case that he has accepted he could not break. This check comes with no strings attached or pressure to do services.

What Do I need to do while Talal is working? Clients have asked what they need to do while Talal is working in the nights. Just living your regular lifestyle is fine and prayer and meditation is encouraged.

How Does the Payment Plan Work? Talal does accept payments in increments to accommodate the needs of individuals from varying financial backgrounds due to black magic. There is the option to pay 20% of the cost upfront with 3 months to pay for the remainder in smaller installments. We go off of the good faith system so you or she would need to give us dates and amounts you or her will pay the remaining balance from the beginning. Some clients also split it into smaller payments, let me know if you or her had another idea and I can ask Talal. Talal will not finish the talismans until he is paid in full. It is important that he finishes the work in those 3 months otherwise he will have to start over from the beginning. It takes a significant amount of time and effort to break black magic. Who did this to Her? Very important! Talal has a strict rule that he is not allowed to reveal who performed the black magic. All of his work comes with protections so nobody in the future can do black magic to her again. She will no longer have to worry about the same person or a new person casting black magic on her. Please, read the Testimonials from previous clients he has helped in order to learn more about how Talal will help her. How will I or She receive Talal's Work? You or she will have the option to have the original talismans shipped to you or her with a tracking number. The shipping service costs $50 USD. Alternatively, you or she can save the $50 and we will scan the talismans and email them to you or her. He recommends the scan as it provides the same effect as the original pieces but you receive them instantly and pay no shipping fee. Also, if you or she made a mistake with the instructions and he has the originals it is easier for him to fix. We recommend that you read the Diagnosis and Treatment page on our website to understand the treatment process. How Do I get started? If you are interested in getting started, Talal is currently accepting PayPal, credit or debit card here, Zelle (klzandt@gmail.com), Venmo (@Zoabi), Money Gram or Western Union. You can always make a payment by clicking the word More in our email signature located at the very bottom of every email. You can read frequently asked questions here. It is important to understand this process takes patience. Talal will not have an update until he finishes his work in the nights. Due to our volume of emails he asks for a brief few sentence update once a week as this is a 2 person office and Talal needs to focus on the actual healing. It is with sincere regret that I have to give you this bad news, but I hope it explains certain behaviors and experiences that have developed in her life. This now gives you the opportunity to allow the black magic to be broken. Please contact me if you are interested in the black magic removal or have any further questions. If you are interested and ready to have this broken, Talal would be happy to take the time to speak with you on the phone to answer any questions you may have. Please let me know if you would like for me to schedule the call? P.S. Talal has many great educational videos on the spiritual world here. Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: I was gonna purchase a love spell from her but something was very off with her, Except she was extremely rude and avoided answering my questions that had to do with the spell, i was asking her question about a certain spell she had on her page and she didn't seem to know what the spell actually did as she was giving me different answers from what she was saying on her post. She guarantees that her spells are powerful and work 100% but on her posts she claims that she works with white magic and sometimes they don't work, I'm not a spellcaster but i don't think that white magic guarantees the spell being 100% successful. Her pictures seemed also fake.. I discovered this site and the reviews they give her make me worry about other people that have contacted her... <https://www.trustpilot.com/review/heavenhealing.co.uk?stars=1>

Spellwork can never be 100% guaranteed.
If a 'caster' is 100% guaranteeing your

Also be wary of people who offer money back guarantees. While it could be legit... it's also very easy for a scammer to promise a refund and never actually return any money.

<https://mydream.lk/shops/1764> (she threatened me because I didn't pay her) and she has my pictures and threatened= me for my life.

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): love spells

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: Hi, I saw your video for "scams" and This person had told me $150, I= sent the $150. Then asked me for $750 then I sent it. Now I'm starting to catch on and he's asking for $6,000. I said no I= didn't have that then he's being persistent and asking me to send him $3000 instead and giving me a time frame. I don't= know what to do because he has all my information and relationship information. I blocked them and they told me that I= would face several issues with my love life and since they have all my information they will do anything possible to= affect my life. His "wife" also messaged me today and i cant get them to leave me alone.

They're being so persistent, if I don't pay them they're threatening me that I will face issues. Im tired of this nonsense, it= didn't feel real because of the continuation of asking for more money. But now that they're telling me this, they're trying= to intimidate me. They also sent me bells since they're from "Uganda" and other things to scare me more because I am not cooperating. I don't know what I was thinking but now I regret this decision with following through with them.

I will continue to block them. also, another person contacted me with my picture and significant other and told me i will= never be happy and i will be cursed

Another common tactic here. After you realize they're a scammer, They then either have someone else, or log into a different account to threaten you. Sometimes it's with a curse, sometimes they threaten to out you to the person you're working on. It's all scare tactics. If they can scare you into paying, it'll be a cinch to keep your money coming in.

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): I ordered a Love casting. You contact her for consultation.

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: I contacted her about my Love problem and what I wanted to happen. She is supposedly a crystal mage or whatever they are called, forgive me lol. She then asked how much exactly I could afford. I didn't want to give her that info, as I didn't want her to use my max wallet as a starting point. Finally she said $265 flat (whatever that meant because it gets worse later)I think it was. I agreed, I was desperate and it was similar to many casters online. It was settled and so she had me pay using one of those independent secure payment websites. Was not Paypal. SHE DID update me everyday on her workings, even though it was all nonsense to me. Said everything looked really good. Near the end of last month she said I should do a "seal" to make the workings stronger. $75. I immediately got uncomfortable...but because I was desperate in love I gave in. But told her that was it. A few weeks later, she tells me about trinket or something for $75 I can buy to bolster the workings even more. She told me my working was immense and great, and that I shouldn't lose this opportunity. I called BS on her and told her NO, not until I saw results.She literally kept asking me to reconsider many emails, even though I keep saying NO. She ends up playing victim, and making it seem like I am missing out on everything I paid for so far. She got defensive to me calling her out, saying I am making her my enemy like a child. I simply stopped emailing her, I knew I got robbed. I suppose it could have been worse, (I could have lost more, but I saw through her) but I was out quite a bit of money regardless. She and her Coven have to be frauds. Like she even said the working or spells would happen all at once like a lightning bolt overnight. Which I haven't heard usually happens.

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): Revenge spell, intranquility spell,= reading

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: As you know, I was having a difficult time. Ordered several spells= such as the revenge spell which was supposedly assisted by the Goddess Moirai who I later googled. Thus, I realized= that that is the name of the collective fates of mythology who spin the threads of life. I also asked for an intranquility= spell.

I looked on the website recently and saw that they are now offering Mirrodin magic but upon doing research, I discovered= that that is indeed related to a video game.

I have contacted them and answers are usually generic and templated, sometimes aggressively typed. They promised= updates, yet none are forth coming and there is now no response. I asked for a reading, which may have been vague= enough, however, when I asked about the updates, that admin was unaware of what I was referring to but also never= responded when it was explained.

I am of the opinion that they put enough information to seem legit but twist the facts.

They appear to be scammers.

Their Website, Social Media Links?: They are on Facebook advertising all kinds of spell work specifically returning your lover. They use whatsapp.

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): Didn't send any money. Asked for a wealth or money spell and they said it would be absolutely free and they didn't charge for their work. Then they asked for my name age and picture and they were to consult the Oracle. They then told me the Oracle said I had a demon spirit inside me and they needed special materials that were hard to get such as an eagle eye, white cock, vulture foot and things like that. Needed $100 for the materials. After that, I ignored the attempted messages and a couple calls. For sure scam!

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: Sorry, wrote everything above, lol

It was a Money spell

Name of Fake Spell Caster: Kasamba: CHRISTINA PSYCHIC READER

Their Website, Social Media Links?: A cheap psychic reader on Kasamba

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): Psychic who said one thing vaguely, then several days later said something completely different offering spell work in an urgent tone.

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: I previously spoke with a psychic on Kasamba, and I felt she really resonated and knew the whole situation more than I did. But, she was super expensive due to her experience and high ratings.

I recently decided to interact with several "cheaper" psychics on there to simply be aware of the progress of my love=bind spell you performed during the last full moon and how I need to adjust my energy to make it successful. One of the psychics who is called, "CHRISTINA PSYCHIC READER" was super vague during our chat reading and kept saying "good" and "ok". She then messaged me yesterday out of now where with caps locks turned on, "DID YOU KNOW THE WITCH YOU CAST THE SPELL ON IS A FAKE AND THE SPELL IS NOT WORKING? I CAN CAST IT FOR YOU FOR $500". I know there are a bunch of fake spellcasters out there. But, I know you are not a fake, you are the one who goes around denouncing the fakes, you take your time counseling all your clients, and giving advice. The crazier part is, all the 4 "cheap psychics" I interacted with said completely different things.

I know for sure I am now staying away from Kasamba.

I reflected on the email you sent me, I saw it had to do with manifestation. I did not know much about manifestation at all. I researched the topic, I also learned about the Law of Attraction, Law of Vibration, numerology, letting go, etc. You have opened a whole new world to me! I am serious! I have a Master's Degree, I am only 27-years old, I have a good job, I have been on the newspaper, I'm bilingual, I have all these skills, and I've met and spoke with a former President of the United States. I thought I knew everything in life and I was arrogant. I considered myself an agnostic/skeptic for many years. I thought I know it all; however, I now realize how much in the dark I was.

Two days before you casted my love bind spell, I kept seeing the clock and it kept saying 5:55, even when I would randomly check my phone it would say 5:55. It caught my intention because I thought it was unusual. I researched it and found out it was an angel number representing change. I had not idea, I felt so ignorant. Then, several days after you casted the spell, a bunch of billboards (about 15 of them!) that ends with the phone number XXX-XXX-5555, were posted the entire way to my 20-minute drive to my work and near my home. It felt so strange, unusual, dreamlike, and wild that I delved deeper. I started seeing other angel numbers.

I researched more, and I found out you can directly ask a sign from the universe. I recently asked the universe to "send me a white feather (not a picture of a feather, but a physical one) on my path if you heard about my manifestations and spells." I purposely asked for something strange and I would normally not see because I live in the middle of the desert with only specific animals. I found a white feather the next morning on my path. My world turned into an entire 180 degrees. To me, it was so hard to rationalize it all on my logical mind, because I viewed the world logically for many years. I was also receiving many of the symptoms of what they call a "spiritual awakening". I am now questioning all my the beliefs I held my entire life, I'm questioning what I was taught, and how I view the world, it was overwhelming.

I am now not going to visit any psychics, if I have a question, I'll ask the universe directly.

I recently started researching the concept of "letting go" and I see that there are many different methods to do that. I noticed I had a hard time "letting go" and it is essential for a spell because if not, it cannot be released onto the universe. So, I am working on that.

Which is way I want to thank you, if it weren't for you, I would've always been in the dark. I would never have known this would lead me into a powerful spiritual awakening. I am also woken up at random times at the night, I look at my clock and the time either says 2:22, 4:44, 3:33. To me that is physical proof that this is not a coincidence and the other side is somehow trying to reach me out because they know that they have to be that obvious since my intuition is not the greatest.

I have taught many adults twice my age, I trained students at the university, and thought I had it all: education, power, knowledge, good looks, income, etc. in this matrix. But, what I was missing out on the most was my connection with my spirituality and the divine. And I believe I would have never left that darkness without encountering with you, because I know it will forever change my life.

I still have the white feather in my possession and plan to keep it for a very long time because it a symbol of the beginning of my great spiritual awakening.

He also has the really bad habit of constant calls through WhatsApp that even telling him to just text you, he gets such an attitude. May be somewhat legit but I do not recommend it ever.

Their Website, Social Media Links?: Tiktok: <https://www.tiktok.com/@lizardg3cko>
Instagram: lizardcharlotte

I started chatting with her on Tiktok DMs and then Instagram DMs

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): Love spell; honey jar

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: This was probably the worst experience I've ever had with a service. Charlotte said she sold love spells and her video of a honey jar had strong energy so thought I'd give it a try. She listened to my situation and recommended a honey jar. She said it would come with my own personalization of crystals and oils based on what I wanted in the relationship. She promised that there would be a good outcome or she would refund me the money, but that she's never had to refund. She said I would see good things coming in as soon as 1-2 days but the full manifestation would take time. She was EXTREMELY EXTREMELY EXTREMELY uncommunicative afterwards. She got back to me a week later and said that we could move forward. I gave her me and POI's details and paid her, but didn't hear back. After spam texting her, she said the payment never came through (PayPal formality), so I talked to customer service and got the money to go through. She said that she would get started and let me know what she was including based on my situation in the spell. I didn't hear from her AGAIN. She NEVER told me what she put in the spell, I didn't get to pick ANY crystals/oils, and she said she doesn't send videos of her rituals! I asked her for a picture several times and she dismissed this. I told her how upset I was with her lack of communication, to which she responded a few days later, "I'm confused, I did the spell 2 days ago". I texted her back saying "I never got any videos or pictures from you, you didn't even give me updates about the spell and that you casted it, nor did you give me any insight into wax/flame interpretations, and you ghosted me. It felt like I was scammed". And she just left me on read. I thought she was a good and well meaning person but I was scammed out of $30, which while is not a lot of money in the grand scheme of things, I'm a broke uni student so every penny matters. Currently working with PayPal to get my money back. I hope no one ever goes through this with her or any spellcaster. Her spiritual knowledge is also flawed, as I remember her saying at one point that "we have multiple twinflames" which is not true at all, as I know now.

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: After my ex and I broke up I was desperate. I looked for someone who would help us reunite, white magick only of course. Somehow I stumbled upon her. The day after I purchased my spell she called me saying how there were people in his life that were hiring someone to cast black magic to keep us apart, I needed to pay for another spell and The Temple would give me some of the money. In hindsight I see the red flags, but being emotional and desperate and unfamiliar with all of it I agreed and paid. Then she wanted MORE money. I told her I couldn't afford it and she actually asked if I could get money from my family or get another credit card. Another HUGE red flag I stupidly ignored. But I paid even more. Then she says everything is going great except now he has a girl in his life and we need to stop this before he gets her pregnant, and he's my twin flame. After she told me this was $10,000, I told her flat out I could not and would not be affording that and she said she would "see what she can do" and hasn't contacted me since. I gave her my car savings and some of my retirement and I'm very upset and want my money back. I feel ridiculous for buying into any of her nonsense. I would love to hear what you find upon researching this individual.

What type of Service Did you Buy?(love spell? reading? psychic services?): Love spell over $1,000

He claims that my former partner has a girl who cast a spell on him so to overcome it, he claims he will do a spell for $2300. I told him not at the moment because I paid him already for an unsuccessful service that hasn't worked, he claims it will work.

Can you Tell Me More About What Happened?: My former partner and I broke up, nothing helped- I scrolled through TikTok where I found this "Dr Richard" on TikTok who claims to be illegitimate and I saw a few people who follow him- commented that he helped bring their ex back so I asked him for his services along with asking how much he charged- he told me it would only $182 so I went with him and the fact that he has a website, one that is slow to load- but I didn't mind. Then he said I needed to go out & bathe with something out in a cemetery- but I chose not to, I could pay $350 for someone to do it for me, because my mother was in the hospital, I only paid him half- then he caught an attitude and asked if I thought his services were a joke. I told him he never mentioned it and to not speak to me like that or else I would refund my money. But I paid him because of his reassurance. He then conveniently forgot to mention that he was going to charge me $850- 870- when I told him why he didn't mention it, he said because "This is the way we work." His so called services cost me over $1,000 and he didn't even hold compassion that my mom was in the hospital and I had to provide for her- I paid him through MoneyGram and PayPal, money that I will never get back. He also sent me over a "Powerful" and "Strong" necklace and bracelet that he constantly called a "Ring." He lives in Italy, has different emails, and refuses to give his address. Now, he says my former partner's around a girl who cast a spell on him and in order to overcome it, it will cost $2300 but to pay half so he can get started but I called him out on it because he previously stated you can't pay half nor can he pay for you, because "The spell doesn't work like that." Honestly, now I've moved on from my ex and am wondering if this is or was ever worth it to move forward with this guy. Would love to know if he's legit.

That he promises and give me his word that this is it and final and=guarantees results. I keep questioning him. I've gotten in arguments with him many times. I have no idea how the heck I=was convinced to keep going. Anyway, he said to trust him and his work and powers. That he's helped many. He said he= would not be able to promise me all this in front of his powers. That he'd be punished. I spoke to a couple people in the= reception where I guess they have 11 or more other temples. I was told that he is a legend. That he's one of the top 5= there. They also said that he could not go over 84 days or the powers would render him useless and a failure. And that= none of the healers want that cus it's a huge shame. Also that the average they've seen charge for this work is $10,000.= They said that if he went over 84 days he'd need to start the work over. Also that he has never failed. Another one told= me that if it's gone this long and no results something is wrong and he's not telling me maybe because he doesn't want= me to worry. She said he's not her boss or works under him so she would dig to see what she can find out because she= cannot get in trouble since her boss is another. So this man is guaranteeing this is the final and last thing and that he'll= send me all my money the next day now. I said but how much are you charging me for all this? He said whatever my= heart feels when I see the results. 2 days ago when I questioned him he got bothered and said "do you want me to get= you results and finish this work or not? Because if you don't I need to move on because I cannot take any other work until I finish yours. So tell me now” when I said I wanted to cancel and not continue that this was too much especially with not even a slight sign of any results, he said ok that he’d send me my money back. Next day, I call him and ask if he’s sent me the money yet. He said he was waiting for the shop to open so he could sell it all back. The next day he said he was sending it for sure that day. Then at night when I called him he said he was still waiting on the shop but that it takes 21 days for him to break up everything he’s done That it’s not that easy. That he could return my money after he breaks it all up. He said it’s a lot of work and that this job was really hard. That he’s surprised if just want to cancel it all being at the end when only one more thing is needed. I told him he’s told me this the past 7 times already. He said yea but I’m telling you this now. Please trust me and my powers. Respect my work. I’ve been doing this for 40 years. I’m very well knows here. I did pay everything through WesternUnion 🧑 At the beginning he said I could also do PayPal but that with PayPal it takes 3-5 days for him to get the money. Idk how the heck I was so stupid to fall into this. But worse is that I feel very tempted to send these “last” 300 hrs asking for to see if I finally do see results and give him the benefit of the doubt that he keeps asking for.
